

Be equipped to tackle the network security challenges faced by Australian businesses, services and industry with these pathways in Cyber Security.

Cyber attacks on Australian networks are an ever-increasing threat to individuals, businesses and national security and there is currently a skills shortage in this very specialised sector of the Information Technology industry.

CYBER SECURITY

PATHWAYS LEGEND

- Primary Pathway
- Optional Pathways
- ▶ Entry Points No Pre-Requisite
- ▶ Entry with Recommendations See Website
- * Free or Low Fee

MICRO LEARNING

Bite size learning opportunities to support your career

- Essential 8 Short Course
- Data Analysis Skill Set
- Data Analysis Bootcamp Skill Set
- Cloud Engineering for Intermediate Roles Skill Set
- Artificial Intelligence Skill Set

GO TO UNIVERSITY

NMTAFE has a pathway agreement with Edith Cowan University for entry with credit into the Bachelor of Science (Cyber Security) or Bachelor of Science (Cyber Crime, Security and Intelligence) degrees. Awarded credit is equivalent to a study reduction of 1.5 years at Advanced Diploma Level. Credit may be offered at other WA universities.

EXPLORE RELATED INDUSTRY AREAS

- Government and Defense
- Telecommunications
- E-commerce and Retail
- Education and Research
- Legal and Compliance

TRANSFERABLE SKILLS TOWARDS YOUR DYNAMIC CAREER

- Analytical & Problem-Solving
- Risk Assessment
- Ethics, and privacy in ICT environments
- Advanced Computing
- IoT Knowledge

CAREER PROGRESSION

- Consultant
- Manager
- Analyst
- Security Engineer
- Senior Architect
- Risk Manager